

Enlisted

CMSgt Charles E. Teston

During Chief Teston's career, he flew more than 100 combat support missions, was an academic instructor, first sergeant, a Senior Enlisted Advisor, and superintendent of radio operations. After he retired, he was inducted into the Air Force Communications and Information Hall of Fame.

CMSgt Eric W. Benken

Chief Benken entered the Air Force with a background in information management and served as an administrative specialist. During his career, he served as Senior Enlisted Adviser with the USAF in Europe and he became the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force in 1996.

MSgt Joseph J. Duffy

MSgt Duffy served 42 years as a leader in Communications Security. He served two tours in Vietnam, managed the largest COMSEC account in the world, and earned the Bronze Star. He was also inducted into the Air Force Communications and Information Hall of Fame in 2010.

Communicators in History

How will you leave your mark on the cyber operations domain?