#KM

📁 1990s-2000s: Early research on Web 2.0 - revolutionary emphasis on user-generated content, interoperability, & usability

📁 2009: Authored the book "Digital Habitats: Stewarding Technology for Communities"

📁 2013: Named #8 on the list of Top 100 Influencers in #KM - Knowledge Management

An avid blogger, writer, drawer, speaker, facilitator, teacher, and twitter-er; Nancy is renowned for her expertise in design, deploy-ment, and nurturing of productive online and offline interaction spaces. Her impact is felt all over the web wherever there are strategic collaborations, virtual conferences, or workgroups.

Nancy sums up her philosophy on #KM with these principles:

CONNECT people with ideas, information, services, and other people

COLLABORATE utilizing the full skills, knowledge, and experiences of each player

DISCERN the right tools and techniques for the right solution

LEARN from every encounter

ENJOY the work and REWARD yourself (sometimes with chocolate!)

How will your expertise in #KM connect people and lead to solutions?
